- 1. A Soviet armored division, possibly 214, is stationed at Timisoara. Some units of this division are on Hungarian territory, including:
 - A full reconnaissance battalion in the Hungarian village of Totkomlos, 16 kilometers south-southeast of Oroshaza;
 - b. Units of a motorized infantry regiment in the villages of Sarkad (22 kilometers northeast of Bekescsaba), Bekes (10 kilometers northnortheast of Bekescsaba), and Doboz (12 kilometers northeast of Bekescsaba).

A motorized artillery unit of about battalion strength belonging to this division is located at Nadlac, 28 kilometers south of Totkomlos and just inside the Rumanian frontier.

- The Rumanian 394 Labor Battalion has arrived at Timisoara.
- The 4 Rumanian Infantry Regiment is now quartered at Timisoara.
- 4. A Rumanian officer's training school is located in the village of Bogorot (sic) near Timisoara. Here reserve officers in groups of 400-500 men receive refresher training.
- 5. The staff of a Soviet motorized infantry division is located at Satu Mare. The troops of this division are stationed along the Rumanian-Hungarian border, part of them being located in Hungary.
- It has been reported that there is considerable Soviet troop activity
